REMINDER FOR PROPERTY OWNERS

If you have property registered with the Hamilton County Auditor's Office as residential rental property, Ohio Law requires that the information you provide to our office is current, i.e. address, telephone number, contact person, etc. If any information has changed, it is your responsibility to file a new form with our office.

Ohio Law also requires property owners with parcels currently exempt from taxation to notify the Auditor's Office if the properties are no longer being used for the purpose which exempted them from taxation.
